To whom it may concern,

As a Commercial and Residential General Contractor, Rivero Builders, Inc RMO / CEO / President I worked alongside Miss Nauenburg for two years collaborating closely on large private Residential and Commercial Construction Projects. As my right-hand Lyn played an invaluable role in ensuring our operations ran smoothly and efficiently.

Lyn possesses exceptional multitasking abilities that have consistently impressed me with expertise in administrative construction correspondence as well responsible for construction collections having proven to be a pivotal asset to our team.

Lyn's ability to juggle multiple responsibilities completed in a timely matter greatly contributed to our company's success.

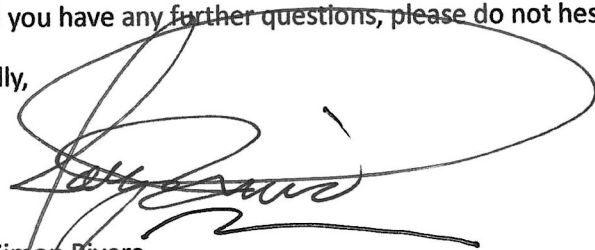

Beyond Lyn's technical skills, demonstrates remarkable qualities that make Lyn an exceptional candidate. Lyn is not only a proactive problem-solver but possesses a keen eye for detail. On numerous occasions, I have witnessed Lyn identify potential issues before they escalated streamlining administrative processes that resulting in an increased efficiency.

Moreover, Lyn was highly regarded by our team members and clients alike for her professionalism and strong interpersonal skills. Lyn has a natural ability to build rapport, making it easy to foster collaborative relationships with both colleagues and external partners.

In conclusion, I am confident that Lyn will excel in any given General Management and Construction Collection role. Her blend of technical skills, exceptional multitasking capabilities, and outstanding work ethic make her a perfect fit for any organization seeking a general manager with monumental collection experience. I strongly recommend Lyn without reservation, and anticipate the positive impact she will bring to any organization.
